What am I?
Who am I?
Am I still human,
Or I became a beast.

I don't know what I am, who I am.
I don't know my origin,
I don't know my past,
I don't know my future,

I don't even know if I am still me.
I don't know what makes me myself.
I don't know whom I should fear.

Should I be afraid of myself?
Should I be afraid of people?
Should I be afraid of god?
Should I be afraid of the devil's?

I am no longer what I used to be.
I don't know how long I have lived.
I don't know how long I live.
I just know I am not dead yet.

So what am I?
